1. Write down as many geometric concepts and terminologies as possible that are related to circles.

   For example: inscribed angle.

2. Write down as many generalizations (theorems, definitions, properties or corollaries) as possible that are related to circles.

   For example: The inscribed angle in a semi-circle is a right angle.